Culturally safe assessment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with dementia living in residential aged care

Presented by: Nina Graham, RN, BSc Nursing, M.T&D Project Officer, Dementia Training Australia with Gwen Rakabula, Geraldton Regional Aboriginal Medical Service.

The Cultural Assessment is an excellent tool that can direct care planning. This ‘living document’ is designed to start a conversation and build rapport with your Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients and their families.

Workshop objectives:

- Understand the need for holistic assessment of people with dementia
- Consider the specific needs of Aboriginal people with dementia
- Demonstrate the impact of historical events and government policies on the life experiences of Aboriginal people
- Complete the DTA Cultural Assessment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People.

Event Details

Cost: fully funded by the Australian Government

Date: Tuesday 5 September, 2017

Time: 8.30am-12 noon (Registration from 8.15am)

Location: WA Centre for Rural Health, 167 Fitzgerald Street, Geraldton. Parking available in the lower carpark.

Registration is essential

Click here to register

Contact:

Lynda Durack
Lynda.durack@uwa.edu.au
(08) 9224 2098

Who should attend?
Health professionals caring for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people living with dementia.

For more information on DTA, visit https://www.dta.com.au/